Until such time as the Board of Directors shall otherwise direct, the Corporation may have two (2) classes of membership, as follows:

No person shall serve more than six (6) consecutive years as a voting member of the Board of Directors except in a circumstance where service as a voting Director beyond six (6) years is necessary to allow the Immediate Past President to serve as a voting Director for a two year term or to allow an officer of the Corporation appointed from among the voting members of the Board of Directors to complete his or her term as an officer of the Corporation.

4.3 ELECTION OF VOTING DIRECTORS. The voting members of the Board of Directors shall elect their successors at the annual September meeting of the Board from a slate of candidates submitted by the Nominating Committee referred to in Section 4.4. Additionally, the Board of Directors shall establish, by resolution, the time and place, either within or without the State of Colorado, for the holding of additional regular meetings of the Board.

4.7 SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by or at the request of the President or any three (3) Directors. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail in a sealed envelope, so addressed, with postage thereon prepaid. If notice is given by facsimile transmission or e-mail transmission, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered upon confirmation to the sender that the transmission has been received by the facsimile machine or e-mail system of the addressee. 4.11 PARTICIPATION BY ELECTRONIC MEANS. Any voting member may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors by means of telephone conference or similar communications equipment by which all persons participating in the meeting may hear each other. In addition, Internet-based chat systems may be used. These chat systems may be based on video and/or audio technology, so long as each participant can hear all other participants. Such participation shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

4.12 ACTION WITHOUT MEETING BY DIRECTORS. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by a majority of the voting Directors. Any such action shall have the same force and effect as action taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors.

4.13 COMPENSATION; EXPENSES. Directors shall not receive compensation for their services. In its discretion, the Board of Directors may reimburse individual Directors for reasonable expenses paid or incurred by them on behalf of, or in furtherance of the interests of, the Corporation. The acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

4.16 PRESUMPTION OF ASSENT. A Director of the Corporation who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless such Director's dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless the dissenting Director shall file a written dissent to such action with the Secretary of the Corporation within five (5) calendar days following adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not be available to a Director who voted in favor of an action.

4.17 REMOVAL. A voting member of the Board of Directors may be removed upon a vote of not less than two-thirds (2/3) of all voting Directors then in office. 4.18 PROXIES/MEANS OF VOTING. A voting member of the Board of Directors may appoint another voting member of the Board of Directors to act on his or her behalf by means of a written proxy, a copy of which shall be delivered to the meeting at which the appointed Director is to act on behalf of the appointing Director. Proxies shall be valid only for a single meeting of the Board of Directors. The President shall perform all other duties incident to the office of President and such additional duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors from time to time.

5.4 VICE-PRESIDENT. In the absence of the President or in the event of his/her inability to act, the Vice President shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each committee may, subject to the approval of the President, prescribe rules and regulations for the call and conduct of its meetings and other matters relating to its procedures.

7.3 COMPENSATION. Members of committees shall not receive compensation for their services. In his or her discretion, the President may reimburse individual committee members for reasonable expenses paid or incurred by them on behalf of, or in furtherance of the interests of, the Corporation. No member, Director, officer, employee, committee member, Board Liaison, or person connected with the Corporation, or any other private individual, shall receive at any time any of the net earnings or pecuniary profit from the operations of the Corporation, provided that this shall not prevent the payment to any such person of such reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the Corporation in effecting any of its purposes as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors; and no such person or persons shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets upon the dissolution of the Corporation. Any and all members of the Corporation shall be deemed to have expressly consented and agreed that upon such dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, the assets of the Corporation, after all debts have been satisfied, then remaining in the hands of the Board of Directors shall be distributed exclusively to or for the benefit of an organization or organizations which are then qualified as exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or its successor provision, which are described in Section 170(c)(2) of the Code, and each of which has been in existence and so described for a continuous period of at least sixty (60) calendar months. Such waiver shall be in writing and signed by the Director and delivered to the Corporation for filing with the corporate records, but such delivery and filing shall not be a condition to the effectiveness of the waiver. Attendance or participation of a Director at a meeting waives any required notice of that meeting unless at the beginning of the meeting or promptly upon the Director's arrival, the Director objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting because of lack of notice or defective notice and does not thereafter vote for or assent to action taken at the meeting, or if special notice was required for a particular purpose pursuant to these Bylaws, the Director objects to transacting business with respect to the purpose for which such special notice was required and does not thereafter vote for or assent to action taken at the meeting with respect to such purpose.

If indemnification is provided, the Board of Directors shall have authority to select legal counsel to represent the individual being indemnified. The Board of Directors may, in its discretion, cause the Corporation to carry officers and directors liability insurance and such other insurance as the Board shall deem appropriate for the types and levels of risk associated with the Corporation's activities.
